

CITY OF MONTROSE DISASTER PLAN LADDER BREAKDOWN:

Event Occurs*

City runs out of assets to deal with situation ->

County brings theirs ->

County Runs out of assets ->

Surrounding counties ->

Surround Counties run out ->

State brings theirs →

State runs out of Assets ->

Feds or US Government.

McCook County has a MUTUAL AID AGREEMENT with the City of Montrose

Finance Officer in City Hall has a copy of agreement.

Each of these steps is supported by a ladder of paperwork interwoven through each entity from

Mutual Aid agreements to MOU's (memorandum of understanding)

Master Plan For the County is Called a "LEOP" – Local Emergency Operations Plan.

Resources:

Montrose City Community Center can be used as a disaster-meeting place for mitigation and response.

Residents can use this room if needed.

Utility companies would be contacted to respond to affected homes in town.

Volunteer firefighters would be available to go door to door and visit with residents.

County:

<15 people can stay at county courthouse

>15 people can stay at the fire halls

EMERGENCY MANAGER FOR MCCOOK COUNTY: BJ STIEFVATOR